

DIVYA DEVAGUPTAPU DANCER WITH UTMOST GRACE!

Divya Devaguptapu, senior disciple of Dhananjayans, is an internationally known dancer and choreographer. A Bharatanatyam artiste and a senior disciple of Dhananjayans from Chennai,

India, now based in San Diego in the US, Divya Devaguptapu is critically acclaimed for her thought provoking and mature choreography, her pure dance technique is flawless.

In 2001, Divya moved to US in order to study engineering; however, her strong calling for dance made her give up a career in engineering to pursue Bharatanatyam professionally. She came back to India in 2009 to devote full time to dance as a career. Since then, she has been dividing her time between India and the US touring and performing as a professional Bharatanatyam dancer.

Paralleling her artistic passion is her academic quest, which helped her become a seeker and a researcher. She has Bachelors in Electrical Engineering from the University of Madras, India and a Masters from University of Southern California, USA and has worked for several years in the Telecommunications industry. However, she left all that to pursue her lifetime passion of Bharatanatyam.

Divya's knowledge of music aggrandizes her dance as rhythm and melody form a perfect union. Her knowledge of Indian Classical Carnatic Music is noteworthy. Divya Devaguptapu is on her way to fast establishing herself as a brilliant performer and dedicated teacher of this art form.
